General Marking Guidance

- All candidates must receive the same treatment. Examiners must mark the first candidate in exactly the same way as they mark the last.
- Mark schemes should be applied positively. Candidates must be rewarded for what they have shown they can do rather than penalised for omissions.
- Examiners should mark according to the mark scheme not according to their perception of where the grade boundaries may lie.
- There is no ceiling on achievement. All marks on the mark scheme should be used appropriately.
- All the marks on the mark scheme are designed to be awarded. Examiners should always award full marks if deserved, i.e. if the answer matches the mark scheme. Examiners should also be prepared to award zero marks if the candidate's response is not worthy of credit according to the mark scheme.
- Where some judgement is required, mark schemes will provide the principles by which marks will be awarded and exemplification may be limited.
- When examiners are in doubt regarding the application of the mark scheme to a candidate's response, the team leader must be consulted.
- Crossed out work should be marked UNLESS the candidate has replaced it with an alternative response.

Section A: Supported multiple choice

N.B. If part (a) of the question is INCORRECT, then a maximum of 2 marks can be awarded for part (b).

1 (a)	Fast food chain McDonald's consistently reaches number one in the Top 100 Global Franchise Rankings. Which one of the following is an advantage of buying a McDonald's franchise? Answer: A (Using an established brand name)	1
1 (b)	Explain why this answer is correct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Definition of a franchise: e.g. A way of running a business that allows an individual or business to pay for the right to use another firm's branding, product knowledge and systems for a prescribed period of time. (1)</li> <li>• McDonald's is a global fast food chain and recognised by consumers everywhere and symbolised by its golden arches. (1)</li> <li>• Which means buyers of McDonald's franchises will find it easier and much less risky to build a fast food business rather than starting with an unknown and new business name. (1)</li> </ul> Alternatively, up to two of the marks above can be achieved by explaining (not defining) distracters, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• B is incorrect because franchisees cannot make all the decisions because some decisions are made by the franchisor (1)</li> <li>• C is incorrect because the franchisor controls the suppliers. (1)</li> <li>• D is incorrect because the franchisee will be required to pay a share of profits to the franchisor (1)</li> </ul> Any acceptable answer that shows selective knowledge/understanding/application and/or development. N.B. up to 2 marks out of 3 may be gained for part (b) if part (a) is incorrect.	1-3 (Total 4)

4 (a)	In 2016 David Hay started his own business, Hays Gardening and Landscapes. David was previously an employee of another business. (a) What was the opportunity cost for David when he started his business? Answer: B (Loss of earnings through employment)	1
4 (b)	Explain why this answer is correct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Definition of opportunity cost: the cost of the next best alternative foregone. (1)</li> <li>• David Hay had to choose between being self-employed or receiving an income from paid employment. (1)</li> <li>• The result is the sacrifice of a regular secure income for the potential of higher income he might generate from self-employment. (1)</li> </ul> Alternatively, up to two of the marks above can be achieved by explaining (not defining) distracters, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A is incorrect as any marketing costs for Hays Gardening and Landscapes are a cost to the business and not the next best alternative for David Hay. (1)</li> <li>• C is incorrect because paying taxes on profits is a legal requirement for businesses and not an alternative option/ as an employee David paid income tax which as a sole trader he will now have to pay on his profits so is not an opportunity cost for David (1)</li> <li>• D is incorrect as risking business failure is a characteristic of an entrepreneur not the opportunity forgone to run your own business/risk of business failure only occurs after the business is up and running and is not an opportunity cost of starting a business (1)</li> </ul> Any acceptable answer that shows selective knowledge/understanding/application and/or development. N.B. up to 2 marks out of 3 may be gained for part (b) if part (a) is incorrect.	1-3 (Total 4)

6 (b)	Explain why this answer is correct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Definition of supply: the amount a producer is willing and able to supply at a given price in a given time period. (1)</li> <li>• Lack of rain meant that almost half the food grain crops had failed which meant less grain could be supplied. (1)</li> <li>• The supply curve will shift to the left because the amount of food grain available will be reduced no matter what price people are prepared to pay. (1)</li> </ul> Alternatively, up to two of the marks above can be achieved by explaining (not defining) distracters, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A is incorrect because a shift in the supply curve to the right would indicate an increase in the supply of food grains. (1)</li> <li>• C is incorrect because movement along the supply curve would only occur if the demand curve shifts/change in price causing a movement along the supply curve. (1)</li> <li>• D is incorrect because the decrease in the price of food grains would only occur if there had been an increase in supply or a fall in demand (1)</li> </ul> Any acceptable answer that shows selective knowledge/understanding/application and/or development. N.B. up to 2 marks out of 3 may be gained for part (b) if part (a) is incorrect.	1-3 (Total 4)

11	Evaluate Hamdi's decision to use bank loans rather than venture capital as a source of finance for company expansion.		(14 marks)
Level	Mark	Descriptor	Possible content

Frequent punctuation and/or grammar errors are likely to be present and the writing is generally unclear.	For example, a bank loan is the most common source of loan finance for a business. Usually medium to long term finance with a fixed period over which the loan must be paid, the rate of interest, the frequency and amount of repayments For example, venture capital is money provided by investors to risky start-up or emerging growth companies with potential for high returns, usually in return for a say in company decisions and a portion of the equity (ownership)
2	3-4	Application must be present, i.e. the answer must be contextualised and applied to the commercial operations of Hamdi and Chobani Material is presented with some relevance but there are likely to be passages which lack proper organisation.
